

Dear Customer / Supplier,

The new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) STATEMENT.

Here at Autoscreens Direct Limited we take your privacy seriously, so keeping your data safe is very important and we have stringent controls in place to ensure all data is protected.

We hold various data on your business which may include: - contact details; telephone numbers including mobile numbers, business email addresses plus Company Registration numbers & VAT numbers, Bank account details and names of all contacts and their business email addresses, purely to use in relation to the supply of our products & services. We may also store separate contact names and addresses for any deliveries we make under your instructions to addresses other than yours.

All data is stored on our own server which is secure and protected by various firewalls, encryption and protected pass codes.

The above information is only used for business purposes to enable the smooth running of your account and your business activities with us and we will NEVER share any of your information.

To comply with the new GDPR regulations we require your consent in order for us to store your data. However, if you do not wish for us to store this information simply reply to this email where we will delete fully your contact information within 24 hours.

If you have not replied by 31st of May 2018 we will assume you consent in that you are happy for us to store your contact information.

If you wish to check any data we store, please contact us.

Thanks,
John Considine
